

Religious Education Families - Finding God: "God Our Creator and Father"

"God saw all that He had made, and it was very good." Genesis 1:31

As our Domestic Church Hybrid Model of Faith Enrichment concludes the lessons from Unit One in Loyola Press Finding God: "God Our Creator and Father" ... families find beautiful examples of God's great creation all around!

This spot and the cross represents what Jesus endured for all of us to enjoy the lives we have today.

God is love. Cabrera Family

I can see God created this place because the nature is beautiful, it feels peaceful and quiet. The sounds and looking at the water makes you feel calm and relaxed. AJ (Alejandro)

God's creation. Only God could create such beautiful and vibrant colors. You can see God's love in all the beauty around us.

Through all the years our family has found peace at this statue of Mary:
Today let's turn to Mary as our Mother and ask her to pray for us that we may accept God's will with humble surrender and live as instruments of peace to those around us, especially to those who need it most.

We see God's beauty in our children's laughter, their love and happy innocence. God is love...

We see God's beauty in the smallest of creatures.
